(Address)

student of the Course of Study of Information Law in the Department of Social and Cultural Sciences at the University of Applied Sciences – Darmstadt.

The practical training semester is part of the Bachelor of Information Law at the University of Applied Sciences – Darmstadt.

§ 1

Duties of the Contracting Parties

(1) The practical training employer is obligated

1. to train the student from

_____ to _____ ,

2. to enable the student to take part in the accompanying studies at the University of Applied Sciences,

3. to issue a written confirmation including information about the duration, contents and accomplishments of the practical training.

(2) The student commits herself/himself

1. to take part in the offered training opportunities,

2. to carry out the tasks assigned to her/him with due diligence,

3. to follow the instructions of the practical training employer and other persons in charge hereof,

4. to follow the rules established by the practical training employer, especially the regulations on accident prevention.

§ 2

Supervisor

The practical training employer appoints _____ as contact person to be in charge of the students. At the same time the appointed person is the contact for the Bachelor of Information Law.

§ 3

Remuneration

The practical training shall not be remunerated. / The student shall receive a remuneration of € _____ per calendar month.

§ 4

Confidentiality clause

The students are obliged to the pledge of secrecy just the same as the employees of the practical training employer. This is no obstacle to writing a report/reports on the practical training semester provided serving study purposes. Parts of the reports subject to the pledge of secrecy require the full consent of the practical training employer.

§ 5

Termination of Contract

This agreement may be terminated without notice for important reasons after having heard the University of Applied Sciences. An important reason exists in particular if the practical training employer cannot ensure the training objectives or if the student violates the duties specified in § 1, section 2 grossly or with lasting effect.

§ 6
Contract Issue

The agreement is to be signed in three identical copies. Both parties and the practical training coordinator of the Bachelor of Information Law receive one copy of the agreement.
